

CHILDREN OF HANGZHOU: CONNECTING WITH CHINA

Format: DVD

Created by: The Boston Children's Museum

Join four teens from Hangzhou, China – Doudou, Weicheng, Gangzheng, and Qianyun – and gain insight into Chinese daily life. China is in the news every day, but not in a way that gives Westerners a true sense of the different facets of Chinese people's lives. Through these four video diaries, viewers will experience a school day, visit the countryside, see the training of an opera student, and share in a birthday celebration.

ABOUT THE CREATORS The Boston Children's Museum created an exhibit to talk about their sister city, Hangzhou, and created a whole exhibit about what it's like to be a kid in China. This DVD collects the video diaries featured in the exhibit and can be used in both English or Chinese for optimal learning experience. This is also a DVD-rom and when it is used in a computer one can access pdfs of activity sheets and vocabulary lists (access instructions in case).

Changing the face of Asian language and cultural education in North America by envisioning, developing, translating, and publishing award-winning language and culture learning materials.
