Winner of the 2007 Commission Prize for the Translation of Japanese Literature from Columbia University, Ferris Wheel delivers the world of modern Japanese tanka to Western readers. Enjoy this curated collection of 101 poems personally selected by co-translator & poet Kozue Uzawa to demonstrate the best of Japan's modern poetry. This bilingual edition's elegant format includes the translation, romanized text, and original Japanese characters for each poem, as well as a brief history and introduction to the tanka format.

"A door into a whole wide world of poetry" Janine Beichman, author of Masaoka Shiki: His Life and Works

ABOUT THE TRANSLATORS Kozue Uzawa is Japanese Canadian émigré with a Ph.D. from the University of British Columbia and a position as an assistant professor of Japanese at the University of Lethbridge. She is a successful tanka poet with several publications in Japanese and Canadian journals. Amelia Fielden is an Australian translator and poet who recently collaborated with Uzawa to publish a translated collection of tanka, As Things Are (2005). She belongs to several tanka associations and is widely published in anthologies and journals.
